

Student Union Group Reports Early Plans

"Plan what you've got to have, and construct the building around it." This was the advice given to the OU Student Union planning committee by architect John Latenser.

The committee, composed of students and faculty members, has made a report of its first month's progress. The group emphasized that the entire building is still in the planning stage.

The first month's discussion centered around the recreational and functional parts of the proposed building.

Suggested on the recreational side include bowling alleys, ping-pong facilities and a possible swimming pool. Checkers and chess will probably be handled in a manner similar to that used in the Student Center now.

Ballroom

Also under consideration is a ballroom, which would double as the main lounge. Tentative plans for the ballroom will include using it for large banquets, such as the Greek Week dinners which yearly overflows the auditorium.

A "record listening room" was also included in the recreational plans.

The committee plans to move such functional facilities as the cafeteria, snack bar, faculty club-room and bookstore into the new Student Union. This will provide more classroom and campus space.

Rent Rooms?

Large and small meeting rooms for social and professional fraternities and sororities, clubs and the independents are also under discussion. These rooms will double as private lunch rooms for organizations desiring such facilities.

A reading room may be made available to students who wish a quiet place to study or read.

Also under consideration are small private rooms for the use of social fraternities. However, these would have to be leased to the organizations by contract and rent paid. Each organization would receive a storage closet with this room.

The committee, which meets every Tuesday, has not yet chosen a site for the new building.

OU Junior Will Attend New York Convention

Margaretha Claeson, a junior at Omaha University, was chosen to attend the fifty-seventh Annual Congress of American Industry in New York City, Dec. 3-5. She will represent all Nebraska colleges at the convention.

This is the third year the National Association of Manufacturers has sponsored a trip to the Congress for college students from each state.

Miss Claeson is to be in New York by December 2. The Education Department of National Association of Manufacturers has arranged a tour, including a proposed trip to the United Nations Building. Miss Claeson's junior standing in the College of Business Administration made her eligible for the honor.

Names of business students from colleges all over the state were placed together and the winner and alternate were chosen by lot. Associated Industries of Nebraska serves as the sponsoring group for the state.

Education Convo Uses Music Solos

Omaha University has seen another convocation highlighted with student participation. The Education Convocation held on Wednesday morning depicted scenes from the life of a child and the problems he will face as he grows into the present world situation.

Music was provided by Terry Young, Bob Cahill, and Marian Tyndale who sang solos illustrating the pantomime by students from service organizations. The convocation was under the direction of Pat Cosford.

Vocations Week Plans Start

Initial plans for a vocations week program were discussed by Dr. Milo Bail, John Woods and Charles Hoff, OU faculty members with the vocations education committee of the downtown Kiwanis Club Monday.

The education committee of the Kiwanis started its promotion of vocations in conjunction with vocational guidance at Omaha University.

"Vocations Week" was acknowledged by displays and seminars of each department last year.

University Band, Hoff Promote Good Will With Civic Activities

The Omaha University Band and Charles Hoff, vice-president for business management, have been active this week in promoting good will for the university.

Hoff baked pancakes from 6 to 8 a. m. Wednesday at the Kiwanis Club pancake breakfast at the YMCA.

Hoff estimated a turnout of 2,000 persons attending the breakfast held in the Y cafeteria between 6 and 10 a. m.

Proceeds from the breakfast will be turned over to the Hi-Y, boy's youth organization of the YMCA. Thirty Omaha University personnel attended the breakfast.

The 45-member university marching band played Wednesday afternoon from 12:30 to 1 p. m. in front of the Douglas County courthouse in connection with the annual "Optimist of the Year" awards. The band played marches to attract people to the ceremony. About 200 persons attended including Gov. Val Peterson and Omaha dignitaries. A special motor caravan transported the band downtown.

Pep Rally, Dance, Game Fill OU Homecoming Weekend

Welcome Back . . .

The days, Friday and Saturday, November 14 and 15, have been designated as "Homecoming 1952." On these two days, all of us who are currently "at home" on the campus extend a most cordial welcome to all sons and daughters and to celebrate old times.

On behalf of the students, faculty, staff, and administrative officers, may I express the hope that 1952 Homecoming will be the best ever.

Lucas Announces Training Program for Accountants

A new accounting internship program has been announced by John W. Lucas, Dean of the College of Business Administration. This program will be open to a limited number of qualified seniors who will be assigned to accounting firms for service during the winter months.

The training program will provide senior students with opportunities for solving practical problems to supplement knowledge and techniques acquired in the classroom.

Representatives of accounting firms who have pledged to Dean Lucas and Paul Crossman their support of this program are Mr. Waters of Arthur Andersen and Company, Mr. Shrader of John M. Gilchrist Company, Mr. Johnson of Irwin-Imig Company, Mr. Schuster of Price, Waterhouse and Company, Mr. Hollander of McGladrey, Hansen, Dunn and Company, and Mr. Gerd of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Company.

All students in Business Administration who are specializing in accounting should arrange an interview with Crossman to discuss their participation in the accounting internship program which will be operative in the school year 1953-54.

Blumer Advances Contest Deadline

Nov. 19 is the new deadline for girls who wish to enter the Tomahawk Beauty Contest. The announcement came from Derrille Blumer, chairman of the annual event. The contest will be held Dec. 9.

Miss Blumer urges all unaffiliated girls to make application. Applications are limited to six for each sorority and six from ISA.

There will be no eliminations until all the candidates have appeared in formal and street clothes. Judges for the event are being selected by Tomahawk editor Larry Boersma.

Last year's Tomahawk queen was Janet Langhammer of Zeta Tau Alpha. Other finalists were Ruth Longville, second, and Barbara Zimmerman, third. Both girls are members of Chi Omega sorority.

Runners-up were Anita Reznick of Zeta Tau Alpha, and Pat Cosford and Donna Trambly, both Chi Omega.

Homecoming-1952 will begin officially at noon today. The annual pep rally on the Omaha Courthouse steps will climax the opening activities for the Homecoming festival.

The student and alumni parade will assemble at Twentieth and Douglas Streets, march to Farnam and along Farnam to the Courthouse. Decorated cars carrying the Homecoming Princess candidates, the football team and the cheerleaders will lead the parade to the Courthouse.

The band will spark the parade with the traditional OU fight songs.

Alums Parade

An added feature in the parade will be an Alumni contribution. Alum members will carry past Homecoming Queens to the rally in older model cars to contrast with the convertibles carrying this year's candidates.

Cheers, songs, introduction of the football team, and a rehearsal of the Indian Chant will highlight the pep rally.

Ralph Marterle will play for the dance tonight from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. at Peony Park. Activity cards will admit OU students to the dance, however outside guests must purchase tickets. One of each couple must have an activity card. Intermission ceremonies will reveal the winning candidate—the 1952 Homecoming Princess.

Students will be excused from classes at 12 noon today for the parade and rally. The Fieldhouse will be open for construction of Homecoming displays this afternoon.

The displays will be ready for public inspection tomorrow morning and afternoon before and after the game with the Doane Tigers. The Homecoming game will begin at 2 p. m.

Alumni . . .

Starting with a pre-game War Whoop tonight and ending with the Victory Party tomorrow night, the Alumni have arranged a package plan of entertainment for all former students of OU.

The Alums will meet at the Fontenelle Teepee from 5 p. m. until 1 a. m. tonight to toast the team. At noon tomorrow they will invade the Shack for lunch. Special "Tigerburgers" will be served. Section "B" in the stadium is reserved for the former students at the Homecoming Game.

The post game Pow-Wow and the Victory Dance at the Fontenelle Hotel with Chuck Canuso's orchestra playing will bring the Alumni festivities to a close.

Former students may attend these functions on a package plan for $2.50.

Entertainment will be furnished by the Alums at the dance tomorrow night. Jack Feleman, who is in charge, said that although no definite ideas have been formed yet, "the entertainment will be short, and entertaining."

Crete Relay Ends Four Hours Early

The actual running time for the Crete relay took 16 hours, six minutes, according to Jean Duncan, acting alumni secretary.

The record is approximately four hours better than originally proposed, which allowed 12 minutes for each of the 102 runners. The runners averaged 9.47 minutes per mile.

Besides the runners, 150 mape and route directions, one canoe and three Indian costumes were used in the project.

Other items were one tepee, an Indian "wampum" bag, an "authentic" birchbark ticket and six sleeping bags.

Also included were six camp dinners, two ham radio cars, one radio relay station and two field telephones.

1952 Homecoming Starts At Noon Today

Homecoming History Shows Big Change

Homecoming 1952.

It has been 24 years since OU Homecoming was first observed. In 1928, at the old University campus at Twenty-fourth and Pratt Streets, school was dismissed on Friday for the festivities of the "big game."

Since that time, Homecoming ceremonies have been altered, modernized and, at one time, almost abolished altogether.

In 1935 floats were entered in the parade for the first time. A procession nearly five blocks long paraded downtown and back to the campus.

The Homecoming game in 1938 was played on a field at Thirtieth and Wirt Streets. The game story published in the Gateway that year started, "The Omaha Cardinals tangled with the South Dakota State Jackrabbits..."

Montana State
In 1939 Don Pflasterer played in the Homecoming game against Montana State. The princess was crowned at a dance in the auditorium of the present building. A banquet costing 75 cents a plate followed the dance.

A "scrap rally" for the war effort in 1942 replaced the then-established Homecoming parade. Students collected nearly fifty tons of usable scrap iron.

The war had drawn manpower off the campus to such an extent in 1944 and 1945 that there were no Homecoming games, dances or parades. However, princesses were crowned and banquet costing $1.25 a plate were held in the faculty clubroom.

Dance New
By 1948 manpower was plentiful again. Room displays and the dance at Peony Park were brand new features of Homecoming that year.

For the first time in OU history, the Homecoming game was played on campus grounds in 1949. The Fieldhouse bleachers and field were then recently completed.

In 1950 the Homecoming parade was resumed, minus the pre-war display of floats, and has since been a main feature of festivities.

And this year? The ticket relay to Crete will undoubtedly be remembered as one of the highlights of the '52 Homecoming.

Dear George...

Dear George:

Well, George, it's about that time... and what a time! Snake dances, pep rallies, up all night working on displays... You guessed it, Homecoming.

Have you ever seen Homecoming through the eyes of a freshman, George? You'd be surprised at what you see. The only trouble is that you'd likely go cross-eyed trying to see everything at once.

Do you remember the day we had elections for Homecoming princesses? There was really a big stir with songs, a tepee, a totem, stuffed animals, signs, Indian girls and lolly pops.

Hear Irv Jones got Ralph Marteris for the dance tonight. (You ARE taking me, aren't you, George?)

Ray Hampton said they were having trouble getting people to judge the displays—seems no one wants to take the chance of getting on the wrong side of anybody. Why don't you do it George? No one likes you anyway.

How can you stand the suspense? I'm just dying to know who will be Homecoming princess.

Well, see ya tonight, George.

Love, Your Freshman

AF-ROTC Students 'Stomach' First Aid

A novel course, dubbed "Personal Maintenance" offers both a knowledge of first aid and acute nausea to Air Science II students.

M/Sgt. William Swink, AF-ROTC instructor, sent three different students reeling out of class to steady their undulating stomachs during the first three hours of the course.

The matter was brought to the attention of Maj. Chester R. Steffy, director of instruction in the AF-ROTC program.

A few of the phrases in the personal maintenance manual might well turn any ROTC man's gills a chlorophyll green. To wit: in describing treatment for a certain type of stomach wound the manual says, "If part of the intestine is sticking out, let it alone."

Other exciting details are woven into the manual's presentation of man's adventure with "broken backs, torn joints, snake bites, bones protruding through the flesh, et alia."

Those with stronger stomachs are looking forward to the pending films on battle wounds and injuries... in technicolor.

Dear Editor:

Since the end of World War I in 1918, national recognition has been paid each year on Nov. 11 to the men who died in that war. Since that a second war has ended. And at present a "maneuver" is being carried on which those in power evade calling a war, but in which men of our country are dying.

On this day, Armistice Day, organizations, business houses, small towns and institutions show their respect by some kind of program or observance. Omaha University has not given recognition of any kind toward this day. The flag was not lowered to half-mast, no articles were in the Gateway, no displays were shown in the bookstore, windows and there were no convocations.

It seems to us that the University should observe this day. One day in the school year could be set aside for homage to the ending of both wars. The students, upon graduation, shall be in positions to inhibit future wars. Recognition on this day would help prepare us all to better work toward peace.

Roger Cross and 44 other OU students.

(Editor's note: We think that United Nations day would be a good time for such an observance).

Peak Condition

Last week's relay run through small towns around Omaha brought a lot of comment on the fine spirit at Omaha University. As the runners sped through Springfield, you could see each of the lingering spectators smile—not condemning the stunt, but genuinely enjoying the run as much as the students.

Omaha University made quite a few friends during that run. It is possible that some of these new-found friends will some day—if not tomorrow—come to see an OU football game. They know that we have spirit... they have seen it.

They can be sure that we have a good team... we've seen that.

Just one thing remains. When these friends do come to our game, now or in the future, will they still be satisfied that we have spirit? Or will the bleachers stand silent—and empty?

Football players condition for a game, for the season, and their degree of condition determines the outcome of the game, and of the season.

We conditioned for tomorrow's game by running, too, but it was not physical conditioning. It was mental... and we should be up for the game. If that conditioning was not enough, there will be a half-day holiday beginning at noon today, with a pow-wow to follow. These, coupled with tonight's dance, should do it.

So, if the outcome of the football game is determined by the physical conditioning of the team, our response is determined by our mental conditioning.

The team is up for the game—and we should be, too. Let's see.

Here's your chance to make yourself $25. Just write a 4-line Lucky Strike jingle, based on the fact that Luckies are made better to taste better.

Then, if we select your jingle, we'll pay you for the right to use it, together with your name, in Lucky Strike advertising... probably in this paper.

Read the sample jingles on this page. Then get the gang together, break out the rhyming dictionary, and start writing. It's fun! And we're buying jingles by the bushel!

Hint—if you can sing your jingle, it's a good one!

Hint—the more jingles you write, the more money you have a chance of making.

Hint—be sure to read all the instructions!

HERE ARE THE INSTRUCTIONS

1. Write your Lucky Strike jingle on a plain piece of paper or post card and send it to Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y. Be sure that your name, address, college and class are included—and that they are legible.
2. Base your jingle on any qualities of Luckies. "Luckies are made better to taste better," is only one. (See "Tips to money-makers.")
3. Every student of any college, university or post-graduate-school may submit jingles.
4. You may submit as many jingles as you like. Remember, you are eligible to win more than one $25 award.

*TIPS TO MONEY-MAKERS

To write a winning Lucky Strike jingle, you're not limited to "Luckies are made better to taste better." Use any other sales points on Lucky Strike such as the following:

So free and easy on the draw
Buy Luckies by the carton
Luckies give you deep-down smoking enjoyment

I've heard the same in every class—in history, psych, and ec—for cleaner, fresher, smoother smoke. It's Lucky Strike, by heck!

I like a better-tasting smoke. And mildness counts with me. So when I buy I keep in mind that L.S./M.F.T.

Indians Chance Two Records

Homecoming Battle Marks Rubber Game With Doane

By Lee Nelson

Two records will be at stake when Omaha University clashes with Doane College tomorrow afternoon in the 1952 edition of OU Homecoming.

1. The Indians have never lost a post-war Homecoming battle.
2. Omaha U. has yet to taste defeat on the home gridiron this year.

Tomorrow's fray will be the rubber game of the Indian-Tiger rivalry, which dates back to 1913. Each eleven has won five contests.

The Red and Black will have revenge as its keynote, since Doane upset the Omahans 20-14 in last season's game at Crete.

Omaha also will be out to produce a winning campaign. With last week's 60-6 massacre of Missouri Central, the Indians managed to even the season record at four wins and a like number of setbacks.

Common Foe

The two schools have met only one common foe during the 1952 campaign, that being Nebraska Wesleyan. Omaha hit the Plainsmen 14-7, while Doane was edged by the Lincoln crew, 14-13.

Ron York is the main cog in Coach Aub Given's Tiger machine. York's passing and signal calling have been outstanding throughout the season.

Another holdover is Bob Elm, veteran back who reported late but has developed into the number one threat. Scabbard Bill Best provides the speed in the Doane backfield and is a favorite target for York's aeriels.

Joe Lörvercheck is a bulwark on defense and is being boomed as an All-Conference linebacker. Full Strength

Injuries have hampered the OU attack but all hands should be ready for the important game.

Leading ground gainers Keith Christie and Bob Schropp are slated to be at full strength after missing last week's fray in Missouri.

Tackle Harry Johnson was the only casualty on the trip, but his bad knee has mended sufficiently to permit action.

Six seniors will be playing their last game in the OU uniform. Backs Christie and Aksel Schmidt and linemen Ernie Lee, Bob Rose, Larry Johnson and Jim Spencer will co-captain the Indians in their final contest.

On defense, Don Maseman and Tom Bell are slated to open at the flanks, with Lee and Steve Marinovich at the tackle slots.

Defensive halfbacks are Jerry Tannahill and Schmidt, with either Christie or Rose at safety.

Maseman and Rose hold down offensive end posts, while Marinovich and Harry Johnson or Lee square off at the tackle positions.

Guard slots will be covered by Spencer and Don Hopkins. Larry Johnson is at the pivot.

Quarterback duties go to Jerry Welling, with Christie and Schropp pairing at the halfbacks. Jerry Ziehe is the probable starter at fullback.

Rifle Team Fires First Postal Match

Results of the University of Omaha's first postal match against the University of Connecticut will not be known until some time next week.

The match scores will be exchanged by mail.

Shoulder to shoulder competition starts in the Inter-city Rifle League next week. Omaha University will fire against the Omaha Rifle Club, last year's league champions.

The Air Force ROTC rifle team will aid in developing an Explorer Scout Rifle Team project.

Shoulder to shoulder matches will also be arranged with Omaha High School teams.

Theta Chi Cops First 'Mural Football Win

Theta Chi scored its first win of the season, Monday afternoon, as they downed Lambda Chi Alpha by penetration. With the score tied 6-6 at the end of regulation playing time, the contest was forced into an overtime period.

The win enabled Theta Chi to climb out of last place in the league and forge a sixth place tie with Lambda Chi. Both teams have won one and lost four.

During the first half the game was a see-saw battle with both teams threatening but neither being able to cross the goal line.

First Score

But, early in the second half, Theta Chi broke into the scoring column with a thirty-yard touchdown pass from Bill Graddy to Jack Fraenkel. However, they were foiled in the extra point try and the score stood at 6-0.

With four minutes left in the game, a good Theta Chi defensive maneuver backfired and enabled Lambda Chi to knot the score.

Attempting to stop a Lambda Chi pass, two Theta Chi defensive backs knocked the ball high into the air. Jerry O'Donnell, Lambda Chi end, grabbed the twenty-yard aerial and raced sixty yards for the TD. Bill Bisek tossed the pass.

In the overtime penetration period Theta Chi's Chuck Carter gained thirty yards on three successive running plays to provide the winning margin.

Passes Fall

Lambda Chi Alpha failed in five straight pass plays during their five overtime downs.

When this issue of the Gateway went to press, last night's Sigma Phi Epsilon-ROTC contest was yet to be played.

That contest could well have decided the winner of the 1952 'mural league. Going into the contest the Sig Eps were undefeated and unscored upon. A win would have clinched the title for the Sig Eps.

If ROTC won the fray the league leadership is locked in a three-way tie between Pi Kappa Alpha, AF-ROTC and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Competition next week will wind up play in the league for this year. Monday afternoon ISA will meet Theta Chi, with Lambda Chi and Pi Kappa Alpha clashing on Tuesday.

Standings:

	W.	L.	T.	Pts.	Pct.
Sigma Phi Epsilon	5	0	0	95	1.000
Pi Kappa Alpha	3	1	0	12	.750
AF-ROTC	2	1	0	27	.666
Blackhawks	1	2	0	2	.333
ISA	1	2	1	47	.333
Lambda Chi Alpha	1	4	0	28	.250
Theta Chi	1	4	1	70	.250

Schmidt Tops Scoring

Aksel Schmidt takes the lead in the Omaha U. scoring race as the Indians enter the home stretch of the 1952 grid season.

By virtue of a touchdown and three extra points in the Missouri Central game, Schmidt raised his total to 23 points for the year.

Following Schmidt in the point parade each with an 18 point total are Keith Christie, Jerry Tannahill, Jerry Welling and Jerry Ziehe.

End Bob Rose tallied twice last week to dent the scoring column for the first time this season.

Don Maseman, Jerry Bahensky, Tony Roth and Bud Gibbons have countered one touchdown apiece.

Larry Johnson's newly found kicking toe has credited him with three points, all gained against the Missouri school last week.

Statistics are not available for all eight games, but have been compiled to include all contests up to the Northern Illinois fray.

Students Launch Ticket Campaign

Rookies Press Cage Vets

At the end of the second week of basketball, coach Virgil Yelkin is still stressing fundamentals in cage drills.

Yelkin says, "It's too early to predict the starting five, but some of last year's regulars are in for a surprise."

"The freshmen are showing promise, and some of last year's 'B' squad are going to give the regulars a battle for a varsity slot," continued Yelkin.

The returning lettermen are Ralph Pettit, Bob Rose, Lee Nelson, Dick Davis, Fred Shinrock, Larry Johnson, Bob Mackie, Bob Moscrey, and Tom Mosiman.

Bob Chapman and Ron Benson are two of the boys who are showing promise and pressing for varsity berths.

The basketball squad will play the Alumni here November 26, and regular season play will start here December 1, with a game against College of Emporia (Kans.).

Coach Yelkin will still welcome any new candidates interested in basketball.

Groups Compete For Most Sales

Omaha University students are expected to go all out to promote basketball during their season ticket sales campaign which will be launched Nov. 18.

The four sororities, five fraternities, and Independent Student Association will compete in the sale of tickets.

The season ticket will reserve a seat for the purchaser for each of the 13 home games. This book of tickets will be sold for $10, which is a $6.25 saving over purchase of individual tickets for each game.

Each organization will receive 50 cents for every season ticket sold by one of its members. The goal for sale is 1,500 tickets.

Virgil Yelkin, athletic director, proposed the campaign idea. Getting the ball rolling on the campaign is Harvey Vogler, director of ticket sales.

This program is designed to promote attendance at basketball games, plus gain publicity for student organizations and the university athletic programs.

WOW-TV Carries Homecoming Fray

Tomorrow's Homecoming contest between Omaha and Doane College will probably be seen by more people than any other Omaha engagement ever played.

This has been made possible through the facilities of station WOW-TV, which will carry the game locally over channel 6.

Ken James will be at the mike for the telecast beginning at 1:45. Howard Hall will assist James.

The contest will be carried in the local area in place of the regular "NCAA Game of the Week." The regular "Game of the Week" sponsor, General Motors, is sponsoring the Omaha telecast.

Dance To Reveal Identity Of Homecoming Princess

Dr. Bail Will Present, Crown Winner During Intermission; Marterie to Play

OU's Homecoming celebration will move to Peony Park tonight for the annual all-student dance from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. Merlyn Fratt, general chairman for Homecoming activities, said that arrangements for the dance promise students "a good time for all."

Announcement of the 1952 Homecoming Princess will highlight intermission ceremonies at 10:30 p. m. Identity of the Princess will be kept secret until shortly before the ceremony, when she will be notified.

Princess Unknown

Spectators will not know the identity of the new Princess until she is presented at the stage of the ballroom. Six representatives of each fraternity and ISA will help keep her identity a secret until the last moment.

The remaining four candidates will enter the ballroom before the Princess. Six students will surround each girl; her face will be hidden by a sheet.

Bail Reveals Name

The Princess will be carried to the stage. Her name will be announced by Dr. Milo Bail, president of the University. Then the new Princess will be crowned with the traditional Indian headband and presented a bouquet of roses by Dr. Bail.

Fratt will be master of ceremonies during intermission activities.

Five Candidates

Princess candidates and their organizations are Donna Edstrand, Chi Omega; Jane Hoff, ISA; Patricia Johannsen, Sigma Kappa; Charlotte Longville, Alpha Xi Delta; and Gloria Oldero, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Ralph Marterie and his orchestra will play for the informal dance, the first all-University dance of the year.

Indian colors of red and black will be featured at the dance. The mirrors in the lobby will be decorated with tepees. Two larger tepees will be on the stage.

Balloons will hang from the ceiling. Over the stage letters spelling "Welcome Alums" will be in black and red.
